Malawi, the warm heart of Africa, is revealed on this evocative journey across a land of mighty mountains, verdant valleys and crystalline lakes. Travelling in a comfortable air-conditioned vehicle with a knowledgeable guide, visit colourful markets, parks teeming with game, and the astonishing expanses of Lake Malawi.

With our operator Wilderness Safaris we are also able to tailor-make an itinerary in Malawi for you, with flexible dates for up to 8 guests. We've also featured two gorgeous lakeside properties - perfect add-ons to your safari.

Day 1 Lilongwe

On arrival at Lilongwe airport meet your guide and transfer to Guest House Lilongwe for overnight.

Days 2/3 Zomba

After breakfast, depart by road (4 hrs) on a spectacular journey south to Zomba. Overnight at Ku Chawe Inn, perched 2000 metres up on Zomba Mountain. Activities include hiking, birding and visiting scenic view points.

Days 4/5 Mulanje Mountain

Enjoy a scenic drive through emerald tea plantations to Mulanje Mountain and Lujeri Lodge, built on one of the oldest tea estates in Malawi.

Days 6-8 Liwonde National Park

Morning departure for Liwonde N.P. where elephants, kudu and hippos haunt the floodplains. Activities include boating, game drives and walking trails. Accommodation: Mvuu Wilderness Lodge.

Days 9/10 Lake Malawi

Head north via Mangochi to Mumbo, an idyllic island on Lake Malawi. This freshwater lake is home to over 2000 species of colourful cichlid fish. Activities include Kayaking and snorkelling.

Day 11 Tour ends

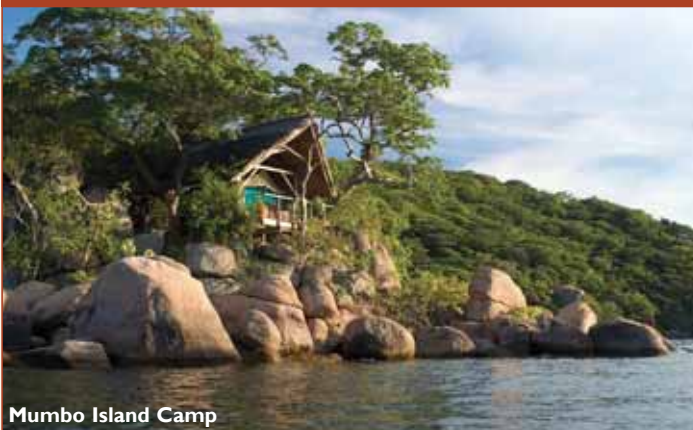

An early boat to shore, before driving back to Lilongwe Airport (4 hours) where the tour ends.

MUMBO ISLAND CAMP

Mumbo Island Camp

A deserted island some eight kilometres off the Cape Maclear Peninsula provides the perfect setting for this comfortable camp. 6 simple canvas tents (including a family tent) are raised on timber decks/high rocks and built under thatch, each with a private toilet and bucket shower. There is no electricity on the island (water is solar heated) and lighting is by means of hurricane lanterns. Activities include birding, nature trails, snorkelling, scuba diving (additional cost) and sea kayaking.

Tour cost 4D/3N per person:	Twin	Single
