INNERSEA DISCOVERIES

With the emphasis on both adventure and comfort, our InnerSea Discoveries cruises explore Alaska's stunning wilderness by small expedition ship. Journey far from the crowds and get close to whales, bears and sea lions; kayak around icebergs and hike through verdant forests. With just 49 guests on board you will be pampered with a three-to-one guest/crew ratio, healthy meals, well-appointed cabins, spacious common areas and top quality adventure equipment. Naturalist and outdoor guides will lead you on a range of activities, including whale watching, kayaking, paddle boarding, wilderness hiking, fishing, caving, snorkelling and glacier viewing to name a few. Onboard you can relax in the sauna, take a yoga class or take in the incredible scenery from the observation deck.

Cruise for 900 nautical miles between Seattle and Juneau via the famed Inside Passage. Travel through a breathtaking wilderness of snow-capped mountains, exceptional wildlife and wilderness, narrow tree-lined passageways and charming port towns. May or September are the best time for cruising with vivid foliage, fewer boats and active bears and other animals foraging along the shoreline.

Day 1 Depart Seattle

Transfer from the airport and board the ship to cruise northward into Puget Sound, continuing on through the narrow Deception Pass. D

Days 2/3 Washington's San Juan Islands

Arrive at Friday Harbour in the misty forests of the San Juan Islands. Explore the town and on day 3 enjoy "gunkholing" around the different islands by skiff, kayak or on foot. As you depart the islands keep a lookout for Orca Whales. BLD

Days 4-7 Canada's Inside Passage

Head northward watching out for Orca Whales, seals, sea lions, dolphins, porpoise and migratory birds. Visit remote communities including Alert Bay, home to the world's largest totem pole, Butedale a former cannery town and Misty Fjords National monument with its sheer rock walls. BLD

Day 8 Ketchikan, Alaska

Learn about the culture of the local Tlingit Indian with a visit to either Saxman Totem Village or the shops along Creek Street. BLD

Day 9 El Capitan Passage/ Devilfish Bay

El Capitan Passage, the waterway that divides Prince of Wales and Kosciusko Islands is a great place to get close to nature. Drop crabpots, travel along an old logging trail and paddle around Devilfish Cove before moving on to Marble Island for some freshly caught seafood. BLD

Day 10 Klawock

Visit the Tlingit village of Klawock to learn about the history of native Alaska and the cultural importance of carving. See the 21 colourfully restored totem poles that dot the town, or take an afternoon kayak trip. BLD

Day 11 Little Port Walter/Mist Cove

This morning choose from a half day fishing excursion, a hike along the Sashin Lake trail or a shorter walk to an abandoned cannery. In the afternoon hike in Mist Cove taking in the amazing views, including an enormous waterfall. BLD

Day 12 Patterson Bay

Wake up in Patterson Bay and spend a restful day discovering the cove by skiff, kayak, or on a guided hike in Tongass National Forest. BLD

Day 13 The Brothers/Frederick Sound

Take a guided kayak trip or skiff tour to watch the sea lions as they noisily parade on the shores of The Brothers islands. Later sail into Frederick Sound, the summer feeding ground of large numbers of Humpback Whales. BLD

Day 14 Dawes Glacier/Ford's Terror

Today experience the glowing blue of Dawes Glacier by kayak or skiff. Tide permitting travel along the narrow passage of Ford's Terror before reboarding for a farewell dinner. BLD

Day 15 Tour ends Juneau

After breakfast disembark for a transfer to Juneau airport. Tour ends. B

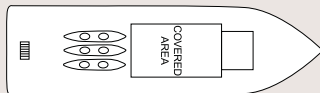

INNERSEA DISCOVERIES DECK PLANS

The small expedition style ships used by InnerSea Discoveries are capable of nimble exploration through nature's most dramatic hideaways. The shallow draft and hull design allow easy access to Southeast Alaska's wildlife-rich shores and glacially-fed inlets, and serve as ideal "launching pads" for an exciting array of daily adventure excursions. Newly-refurbished, the interior spaces offer contemporary colours that complement the wilderness outside and the public and private spaces are loaded with amenities. The main lounge evokes the atmosphere of a cosy lodge or quaint neighbourhood pub.
