TRIBUTES TO ABU SIMBEL

“The quiet beauty of Abu Simbel, the ancient magnificence within the temples and the incredible technical achievements in preserving and moving the monuments, leave an indelible memory. It is a must-see place in Egypt”.

Gillian Farrell

“This extraordinary place is one of the main reasons for me going back to Egypt. When you think that those seated statues of Ramses II are over 19 m high and the complete temple complex was moved up the hillside in the 60’s it is even more impressive. The tour was conducted with total professionalism and the other benefit is that there is no hassle from touts like there is at the Giza Pyramids”.

David Cook

“Abu Simbel is absolutely spectacular - the sheer grandeur of the temples and seeing the many stories unravel on the walls within, gave me a new understanding and great respect for King Ramses”.
